

Where you can vote for left-wing candidates on May 4th

Below is the list of the Trade Unionist and Socialist Coalition (TUSC) candidates standing in the English council elections taking place on May 4th. There are 257 TUSC candidates, including Mayoral candidates in Leicester and Mansfield. They are contesting seats in 66 local authorities in England, presented in a regional breakdown.

Other left candidates standing on May 4th

Listed below are the council and ward details of other left-of-Labour candidates standing in May's elections that TUSC is aware of.

These include candidates from left-wing parties which TUSC nationally or its local constituent organisations have been in discussions with to avoid electoral clashes: the Alliance for Green Socialism; the Breakthrough Party and the Liverpool Community Independents (both part of the People's Alliance of the Left – PAL); the Northern Independence Party; and the Communist Party of Britain.

In addition there are some former left-wing Labour Party members who have also been in discussions with local constituent organisations of TUSC but who decided, on this occasion, to stand on the ballot paper as Independents.
