

Candidates using a TUSC description in the May elections

Below is the final list of the candidates who are using one of the Trade Unionist and Socialist Coalition (TUSC) descriptions on their ballot paper in the council elections taking place on May 1st.

In total there are 102 council candidates contesting seats in 21 local authorities in England, presented below in a regional breakdown, plus a candidate for the Mayor of Doncaster. The council candidates are all standing in the tier one councils with statutory elections on May 1st except where indicated by an asterisk, where they are contesting district or borough council by-elections or, in one case, a parish council election being held on the same day.

Most of the candidates appear on the ballot paper with the description Trade Unionist and Socialist Coalition next to their name but a number are using the new Independent Trade Union and Socialist Candidate descriptor, including two former Labour councillors in Doncaster.
